Family Owned Window & Solar Panel Power Washing Company Committed to Customer Service 30 Years Running

July 1, 2017 – San Antonio, Texas – Clearview Services, Inc., a family owned and operated window, solar panel, power washing and gutter cleaning Company in San Antonio; is pleased to announce it has achieved the SCTRCA's (South Central Texas Regional Certification Agency) certifications of WBE, ESBE, and SBE.

The SCTRCA certifications represent the following credentials and are achieved through a rigorous application process. The WBE (Women-Owned Business Enterprise) certification indicates a Business structure that is owned, operated and controlled by one or more women who have a total of at least 51% or more ownership. The ESBE (Emerging Small Business Enterprise) certification is for Businesses whose annual revenues and number of employees are no greater than 25% of the small Business size standards for its industry as established by the U.S. Small Business Administration. The SBE (Small Business Enterprise) certification represents a Business structure that is formed with the purpose of making a profit, which is independently owned and operated and that meets the United States Small Business Administration (SBA) size standard for a small Business.

"Achieving these certifications means a great deal to us for our customers. They are like an industry stamp of approval affirming our ability to provide specialized care to individuals and organizations of all kinds; and it was important to us to demonstrate that commitment. For over 30 years, Clearview has remained dedicated to the highest standards of excellence and customer service," stated the Company's Owner, Cheri Ettinger.

The Company was founded in 1985 by William and Veronica Alberts, and remains family owned and operated to this day, 30 years later. Cheri's husband, Brad Ettinger (William and Veronica's nephew) was one of the original employees when the founding couple ran the Company from their apartment balcony's storage closet before experiencing rapid growth and moving into their first home. In 2005, the Company was sold to family members Brad and Cheri Ettinger after they had supported running it for four years.

The Company services several large and local Organizations in the San Antonio area as well as countless residential customers. Continuing to operate as a local and family Business has allowed the Company to deliver custom and personal service for 30 years; and experience year over year success.

“Clean Windows make a huge difference in the atmosphere of your home, and it can be an essential element to the image of your Business. Whether at home or work, you can rest assured that your windows will be cleaned by an insured professional window cleaner who has completed a safety and training period with one of our Senior Technicians.” added Ettinger.
